Recommendation letter

Wiktorja Browarska worked at Signify for 2 years as FP&A Analyst (Financial Planning and Analysis) assigned to Supply Chain activity in Center of Expertise (CoE) in Piła. Mein task aimed to deliver new reports and improve existing once, data collection and analysis, performing ad-hoc tasks and conducting meetings to improve delivery of goods performance with international internal customers where good English language knowledge rally helped.

Wiktorja is a quick learner, works well in a new situation and environment and is highly motivated. Wiktorja is a team player, effectively cooperates to deliver teams goals. She delivers tasks on time and swiftly, well manages priority High personal culture and communication robustness are her strong competencies.

Wiktorja during time spend in Signify learned and prove advanced level of data management using MS Office tools (primarily Excel, PowerQuery and VBA). Moreover, can build and identify insights on goods flow cost impacts. Learned by herself complicated process of identifying of non-rotating products and connected with this obsolete provision procedure. The entire process was launched efficiently and without errors, thanks to which the report was launched on time.

In summary, Wiktorja has potential to face challenges and with connection with fast learning ability allows her to learn and understand complex business processes based on numeric indicators.
